

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

2,91

c 1930s

RECEIVED
APR 9 1950
U.S. Department of Agriculture

H O M E W O O D G A R D E N S
GIG HARBOR, WASHINGTON

Surplus list of Gladiolus

To give our friends and customers the benefit of our over stock, we are getting out this special list of a few of the best cut-flower varieties. These are all good clean stock, true to name and at a price below the wholesale list.

The Gladiolus is undoubtedly the best cut-flower for any purpose and any one who has the room to grow them can hardly afford to overlook this bargain list.

	Per 100-# Lto
Angola - Lovely combination of cream and pink . . . . .	$3.00
Black Hawk - Long spike of dark red . . . . .	3.00
Crimson Glow - Glowing crimson willowy spike . . . . .	4.00
Gold Drop - Dainty yellow primulinus . . . . .	2.50
Herada - Early flowering large mauve lilac . . . . .	3.00
Jack London - Large and lovely salmon pink . . . . .	4.00
Lilly White - A very early white . . . . .	3.00
Le Marshal Foch - The largest shell pink gladiolus . . . . .	3.00
Panama - La France pink of extra size and vigor . . . . .	3.00
Pride of Goshen - Large creamy buff . . . . .	3.00
Scwabem - Robust yellow with violet throat . . . . .	3.00
Prince of Wales - Extremely early large salmon pink . . . . .	3.00
Messenger - Smoky oriental red, large and sturdy . . . . .	3.00
Techla - Dainty little flower of lemon yellow . . . . .	2.50
Topaz - A lovely autumn shaded primulinus hybrid . . . . .	2.50
Mixture - Fine assortment . . . . .	2.00

These bulbs run from #1 to #4 in size and all are guaranteed to bloom this season. No order accepted for less than 100 at these prices, but you may combine several varieties to make the hundred as: 25 bulbs each of four varieties or fifty bulbs each of two varieties.

We also have a special on Dahlia tubers of six tubers for one dollar our selection. This collection contains four colors and four types and no two alike. Not labeled separately.

